Pennsylvania's REAL ID Licenses and ID Cards

Broadly, becoming a licensed Pennsylvania driver requires three steps: passing a knowledge test based on the PA Driver's Manual, training with a Learner's Permit, and completing a road test. The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation also requires new drivers complete documentation and pay a fee for their permit and license.

My '89 Ford Ranger (Mazda engine, 5spd manual) got 30 mpg city. What you tried to enlighten me on is the theory of a hybrid. What I am telling you is the practice of driving for good mileage which also has other benefits. I got 30 mpg city because I did not drive aggressively. If you do not race between stop lights adaptive braking is no benefit.
